

BHS Passport Change of Ownership Form

THE BHS CAN ONLY UPDATE PASSPORTS ISSUED BY THE BHS.

YOU MUST SUBMIT THE PASSPORT WITH THE APPLICATION, FAILURE TO DO SO WILL RESULT IN THE APPLICATION BEING RETURNED.

We are unable to transfer ownership to children under the age of 16.

If the horse is jointly owned, we require all owners' signatures and dates of birth to be on this form.

A passport is not legal proof of ownership of an equine. By signing this document, you confirm that you have lawfully obtained the animal.

The British Horse Society will not take responsibility for ownership disputes. In the event of an ownership dispute regarding an animal passported by the BHS, you must notify the BHS immediately so that we can flag the animal on our system to prevent any attempts to update the passport until the dispute is resolved with all parties.

The cost of transferring ownership is £15 (or £12 for registered equine charities).
